"EQUAL RIGHTS TO ALL; SPECIAL PRIVILEGES TO NONE."

PREAMBLE AND PLATFORM.

Adopted by the People's Party at Chicago, July 26th.

WE, the people, of the United States, do hereby certify that the following is the Preamble and Platform of the People's Party of America, as adopted by the National Convention of the People's Party of America, held at Chicago, Illinois, on the 26th day of July, 1892.

Our country is a land of the free, and we are proud to stand for the rights of the people. We believe in the right of every man to the fruits of his own labor, and we believe in the right of every man to the right of suffrage. We believe in the right of every man to the right of education, and we believe in the right of every man to the right of a fair trial by jury. We believe in the right of every man to the right of a fair and honest government, and we believe in the right of every man to the right of a fair and honest election.

We believe in the right of every man to the right of a fair and honest government, and we believe in the right of every man to the right of a fair and honest election. We believe in the right of every man to the right of a fair and honest government, and we believe in the right of every man to the right of a fair and honest election.

James B. Weaver
FOR PRESIDENT

James G. Field
FOR VICE PRESIDENT

Our country is a land of the free, and we are proud to stand for the rights of the people. We believe in the right of every man to the fruits of his own labor, and we believe in the right of every man to the right of suffrage. We believe in the right of every man to the right of education, and we believe in the right of every man to the right of a fair trial by jury. We believe in the right of every man to the right of a fair and honest government, and we believe in the right of every man to the right of a fair and honest election.

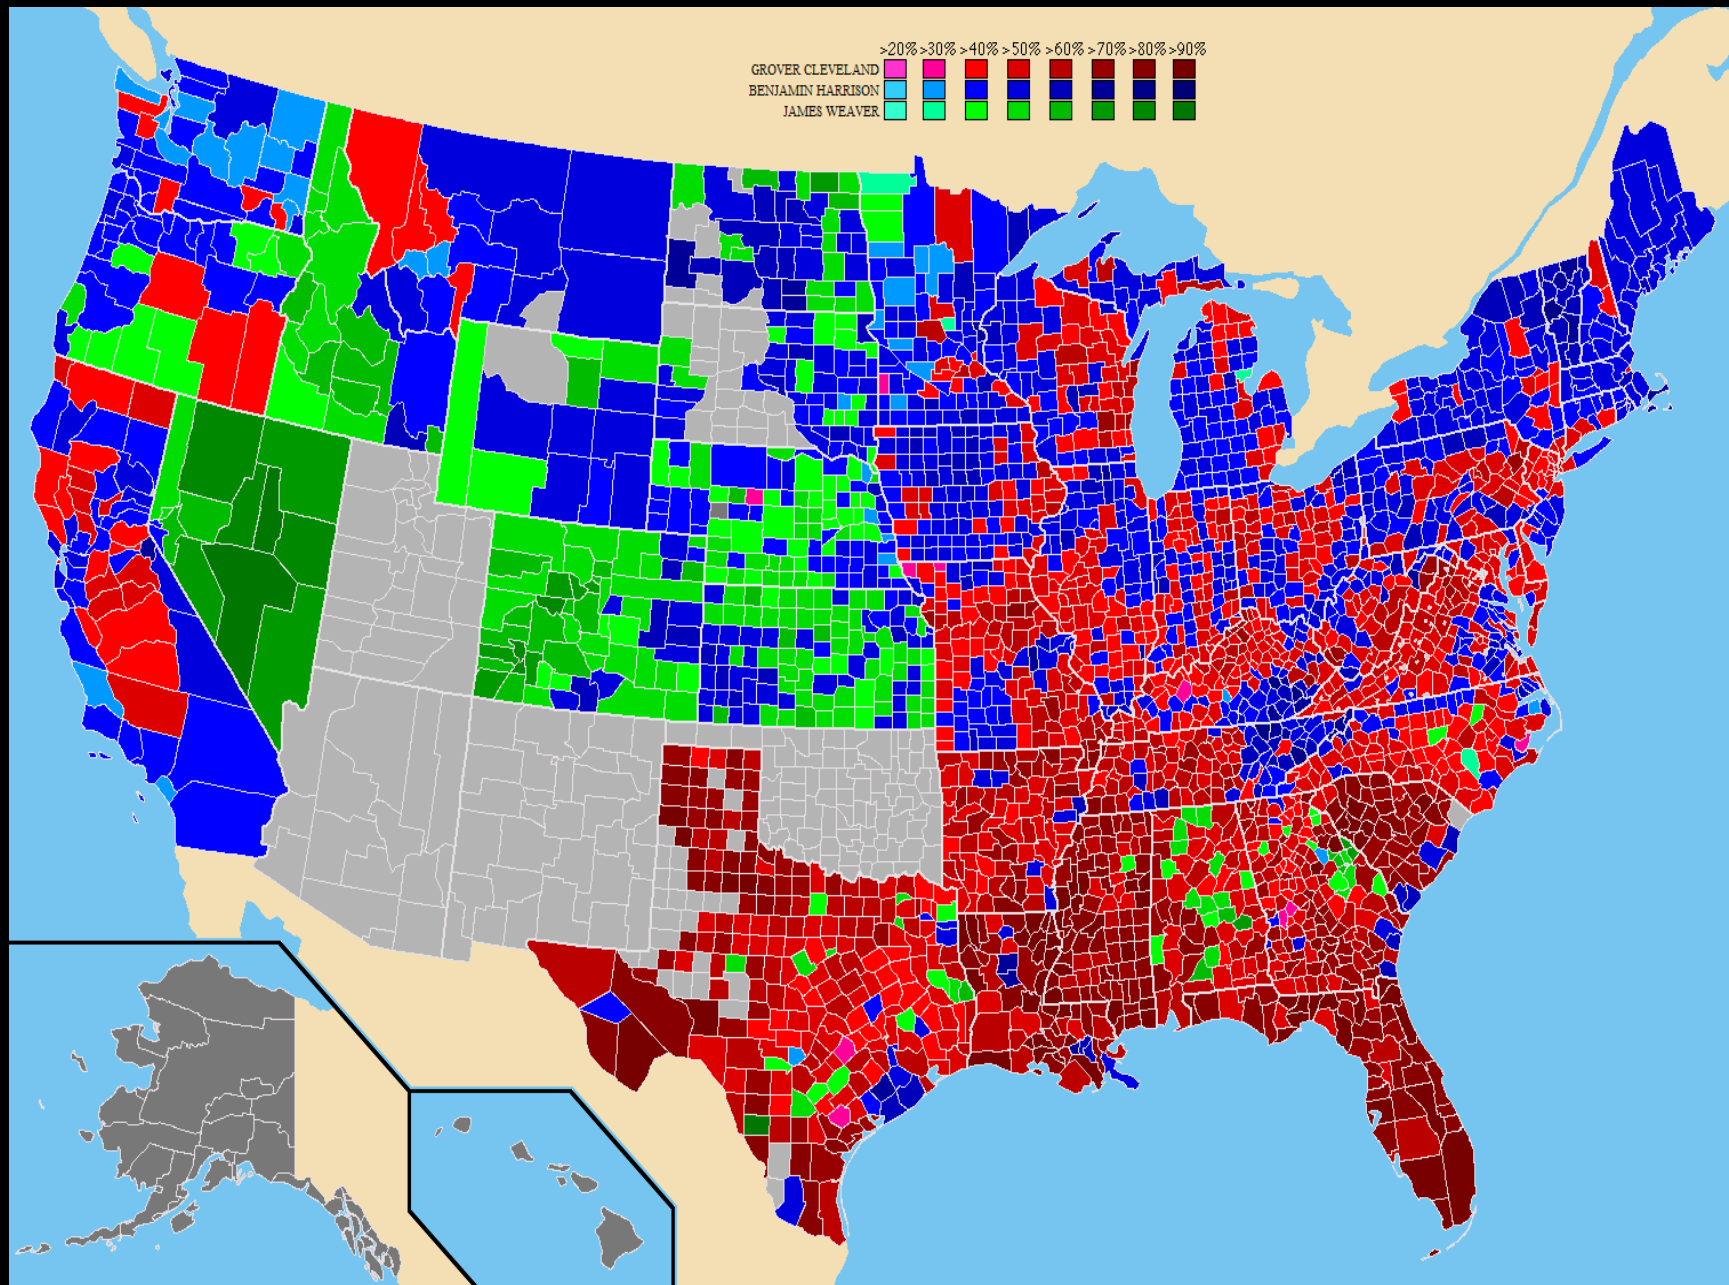

We believe in the right of every man to the right of a fair and honest government, and we believe in the right of every man to the right of a fair and honest election. We believe in the right of every man to the right of a fair and honest government, and we believe in the right of every man to the right of a fair and honest election.
